

LABOUR MARKET IMPACT ASSESSMENT APPLICATION

SEASONAL AGRICULTURAL WORKER PROGRAM

Employers should visit the Temporary Foreign Worker \(TFW\) Program website, to verify that the Program is accepting applications for the specific occupation or sector for which they wish to hire the temporary foreign worker (TFW) and to determine if they are eligible to participate in the Program.

Privacy Notice Statement

The personal information that you provide is collected by Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) under the authority of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR), for the purpose of administering and enforcing the Temporary Foreign Worker (TFW) Program.

The information that you provide may be shared with: Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada and the Canada Border Services Agency for the administration and enforcement of the TFW Program and IRPA/IRPR; the Canada Revenue Agency for the administration and enforcement of the TFW Program; and, provincial/territorial governments for the administration and enforcement of provincial/territorial legislation and programs. The information may also be used by ESDC for research and evaluation purposes and to support the administration or enforcement of other programs in ESDC, including Service Canada and the Labour Program.

This information may also be shared with any Party identified by the employer on the LMIA application form or in the employment agreement.

Your personal information is administered in accordance with the IRPA, IRPR, the Privacy Act, the Department of Employment and Social Development Act (DESDA) and other applicable laws. You have the right to the protection of, access to, and correction of your personal information, which is described in Personal Information Banks: TFWP ESDC PPU 440 and TFW Program Employer Compliance Reviews and Inspections ESDC PPU 715. Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined on the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat website.

This website may also be accessed on-line at any Service Canada Centre. You have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the institution's handling of your personal information on the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada website.

A person, who contravenes a provision set out under sections 126 or 127 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (misrepresentation), could be liable to a fine or to imprisonment, or to both. Also, providing inaccurate information, in the context of this application, may lead to an administrative penalty such as being ineligible to access the Program for a period of two years.

SECTION 12: ACCOMMODATION

Employers must provide proof that the on-farm or off-site housing has been inspected by the appropriate provincial/territorial/municipal body or by an authorized private inspector with appropriate certifications from the relevant level of government, in accordance with the Agreement for the employment in Canada for the Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program. BC only, the inspection must be approved by British Columbia Agriculture Council (BCAC) as well as validated and conducted by a BCAC sanctioned inspector who is authorized to conduct agriculture inspections for the upcoming season. If the authorized inspector or jurisdiction does not have a standard format for reporting official housing inspections, employers must ensure that Schedule F – Housing Inspection Report Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program and Agricultural Stream is used to report the results.

As proof of the suitability of the housing, employers must submit a housing inspection report which demonstrates that the housing unit has been inspected within the eight month period prior to Service Canada receiving the LMIA application. Example: An LMIA application received by Service Canada on December 1, 2017 included a housing inspection report dated May 15, 2017. The housing inspection will be accepted as it was completed within 8 months of the application submission date.

Exception for Direct Replacement and Replacement Transfer LMIA applications: Employers may continue to use the housing inspection report submitted with the original application, even if completed more than 8 months prior to application receipt, as long as the replacement worker will be living in the same accommodation, filling the same position during the same calendar year.

Example: Service Canada previously issued a positive LMIA for an application, with an anticipated start date in April 2018. The application was received November 20, 2017 and included a housing inspection report dated August 22, 2017. The housing inspection report was accepted as it was completed within the 8 months prior to the application's submission date.

If the employer submits a new direct replacement or replacement transfer LMIA application July 14, 2018, the housing inspection report that was previously used in the initially issued LMIA can be reused for this application as long as the workers will live in the same accommodation, will fill the same position and will perform work during the same calendar year. A new housing inspection report is not required.

SECTION 13: ARRIVAL INFORMATION

1. Expected Arrival dates for SAWP workers under this LMIA application:

Number of Named Workers	Number of Unnamed Workers (if applicable)	Requested Arrival Date (yyyy-mm-dd)	Anticipated Departure Date (yyyy-mm-dd)

SECTION 14: EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITIES

Temporary Foreign Workers have the same rights as Canadians and permanent residents and are covered under the same labour legislation and regulations. The Government of Canada takes the health and safety of foreign workers very seriously and will not tolerate any form of abuse of foreign workers or of the Temporary Foreign Worker Program.

When hiring a Temporary Foreign Worker for the Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program, Employers' responsibilities include:

- Adhering and complying with federal-provincial/territorial legislation and regulations pertaining to recruitment, employment standards and occupational health and safety.
- Making reasonable efforts to provide a workplace that is free from physical, sexual, psychological and financial abuse and must not confiscate the temporary foreign worker's identification.
- Ensuring that the temporary foreign worker(s) are performing the same occupation and duties as you had offered them and were reported by you during the application process
- Wages paid during employment must remain substantially the same as the wages offered and not less favourable.
- Employers must always ensure that the TFWs they want to hire under the TFW Program are covered from the provincial/territorial workplace safety insurance provider, where required by law. In provinces/territories where the provincial/territorial legislation allows employers the flexibility to opt for a private insurance plan, employers must ensure that:
 - o any private plan chosen provides the same or better coverage than that offered by a province/territory; and,
 - o all employees on the worksite are covered by the same provider with the same benefits
- Providing suitable accommodations and have an inspection report completed for the housing provided by the appropriate provincial/territorial /municipal body or by an authorized private inspector with appropriate certification.
- Employers must ensure the occupancy of each accommodation location does not exceed the maximum occupancy permitted. They must also ensure that sufficient housing will be made available for all TFWs per approved accommodation from the date of arrival to the date of departure.
- Providing the worker with a copy of the relevant SAWP employment contract which has been signed by the employer, the worker and the liaison officer from the foreign government.
- Adhering to the terms and conditions as set out in the relevant SAWP agreement.
- Not recovering costs of hiring the temporary foreign worker(s) such as the LMIA fee, recruitment, etc. This also applies to any third parties used.
- Reporting any errors or changes to an approved LMIA or the temporary foreign worker to ESDC/Service Canada.
- Retaining all documentation that relates to compliance with program acts, regulations and requirements for a period of six years beginning on the first day of employment of the foreign national.
- Giving all reasonable assistance to an officer conducting an inspection such as but not limited to attending interviews and on-site inspections, answering questions, and providing information and documentation that relates to all Program conditions and requirements. Inspections with or without prior notice can be conducted anytime within a six-year period beginning on the first day of employment of the foreign worker.

Employers who are found non-compliant with these conditions may be subject to consequences including: warnings; issuance of negative Labour Market Impact Assessments; administrative monetary penalties; bans from the program; suspension and/or cancellation of approved labour market assessments; and/or the publishing of the business name on a public website along with details of the violation.

For more details on the program requirements of the Temporary Foreign Worker Program, please visit the Hiring a Temporary Foreign Worker website .

SECTION 15: DOCUMENTATION CHECKLIST – SEASONAL AGRICULTURAL WORKER PROGRAM

IMPORTANT: Employers must use this step-by-step checklist to ensure that all the documents required are submitted, otherwise there will be delays in processing the application.

Under this stream, employers must complete, sign (where applicable) and submit the following documents:

This Labour Market Impact Assessment application form

Additional attached sheets if there was insufficient room to answer a question on the form

Documentation supporting the business legitimacy. The list of required documents is available on the TFW Program website. ESDC/Service Canada may request that employers submit additional proof of business legitimacy documents at a later date.

Proof of Recruitment

Submitted documents must include where, when and for how long the position was advertised and/or the recruitment activity took place. These documents must also prove that the advertisements and/or recruitment activities are consistent with the normal practice for the occupation. Refer to the TFW program website for more details.

Depending on the nature of the position and/or the province of work, a recruitment variation may apply. Proof of recruitment may or may not be required in these cases. Refer to the TFW program website for more details.

Proof of Job Bank Advertisement

If the employer did not use Job Bank, a copy of the advertisement posted on its provincial counterpart.

Copy of the Employment Contract

Copy of the Transfer Contract (if applicable)

Copy of the signed off-farm housing contract (if applicable)

Housing Inspection Report

Employers must send all required documentation to the Service Canada Processing Centre responsible for processing their specific type of Labour Market Impact Assessment application.

A complete application means that employers have:

- used the latest version of the application form
- filled out all of the required fields in all of the necessary forms
- included all of the required documentation
- signed the forms where required

If this application is incomplete, Service Canada staff will inform the employer that it will not be processed. Incomplete applications and supporting documents submitted will not be retained or returned to the employer. As a result, employers are advised to submit copies, not original documents.

SECTION 16: DECLARATION OF THE THIRD-PARTY REPRESENTATIVE (IF APPLICABLE)

I, hereby, declare that the information in SECTION 3: THIRD-PARTY INFORMATION is true, accurate and complete.
