

Consent to Communicate Information to an Authorized Person

This form allows you to name a person (such as your spouse, partner, other family member or friend) to communicate on your behalf with Service Canada regarding your Canada Pension Plan (CPP), Old Age Security (OAS) benefits, and Foreign benefits (FB) under an International Social Security Agreement (ISSA). It allows Service Canada to communicate to this authorized person your personal information concerning CPP/OAS benefits, payments, income, contributions, application for Foreign Benefits under an International Social Security Agreement, and changes to your address (excluding the address where your cheque is mailed or the bank account where the payment is deposited). It does not provide authority for the person to apply for benefits for you, change your payment address or request/change voluntary tax withhold. If our records indicate that a legal representative, such as a Power of Attorney or Trustee, is authorized to act on your behalf, all communications will be made through that legal representative.

Note: Third Parties are not currently authorized to use the Service Canada online services.

Section 1: Your Consent (you must complete and sign this section)

Why do I need to complete this form?

Personal information about you and the financial benefits paid to you is confidential. We need your signed consent if you want Service Canada to communicate with another person (such as your spouse, partner or accountant) for CPP/OAS/FB program benefit matters. You can give this consent by completing and signing Section 1 of the attached form. The person you would like us to communicate with must complete and sign Section 2.

Your signed consent allows Service Canada to communicate confidential CPP/OAS/FB program benefit information to this person and allows them to communicate with us on your behalf. This consent will stay in effect until a written cancellation request is received from you or in the event of your death.

Note: Third Parties are not currently authorized to use Service Canada online services.

Does my spouse, common-law partner, or other family member need my consent?

Yes, Service Canada cannot communicate your personal benefit information with your spouse, common-law partner, son or daughter without your signed consent.

What will this person be allowed to do on my behalf?

When you give signed consent to Service Canada to communicate with this person, you are letting that person provide and receive your personal program benefit information such as benefit rates, changes to your address excluding payment address (the address where your cheque is mailed or the bank account where the payment is deposited), tax slips, OAS income, Canadian residence information and CPP contributions.

What is this person not allowed to do on my behalf?

This consent form does not provide authority to the person to apply for benefits, withdraw or cancel benefits, change your payment address (the address where your cheque is mailed or the bank account where the payment is deposited), request or change voluntary tax withhold.

Who can change my payment address including direct deposit information?

Generally, only you can ask us to change your payment address (the address where your cheque is mailed or the bank account where the payment is deposited). However, a legal representative, someone with a power of attorney granted from you, or a trustee, can ask us to change this information. That person does not need to complete this form, but they have to provide a certified copy of the legal document that names them as acting in that capacity.
